WELCOME TO BREYER ANIMAL CREATIONS°!

For many young horse lovers, Breyer® model horses are the first introduction to the animal they love most: the horse! That's why we take pride in making the finest model horses in the world – for active role play, collecting, customizing and display - for more than 60 years!

Breyer is an integral part of the horse world and our unique real horse experience provides the knowledge and skill required to make model horses and accessories that are beautiful enough to inspire, while also teaching children about horses and other animals through positive, nurturing role play experiences.

So realistic are Breyer's model horses that they have inspired a vibrant and active hobby around model horse collecting, showing and customizing! Breyer model horse collectors of all ages participate in live model horse shows held all over the country, gather online to show off their collections and re-makes, and attend a wide variety of Breyer events – both in person and online – that consistently connect the real horse world and the model horse hobby like

What does this mean for the Breyer retailer? It means that you have joined no other brand! a world rich in loyal franchise consumers and a company with many years of experience to support them! It means that you can count on season-less, yearround sales from a complete, contemporary line of equestrian-themed toys, activity kits and collectibles. It means having knowledgeable sales support, retail merchandising, and the ability to host exciting in-store events – all designed to maximize your sales.

We're glad to have you as a part of the Breyer family! Have a great year!

10320 Elvis Presley®'s Bear — Second in a series of Elvis®' Beloved Horses!

A horse-buying trip to Walls, Mississippi, led the gospel singer and King of Rock and Roll to a 65-foot tall, bright white cross on a cattle ranch with a "For Sale" sign out front. Elvis bought the ranch, renamed it the Circle G (for Graceland), and found a smooth gaited horse to ride along its fence line: a prize-winning, flat-shod black Tennessee Walking Horse gelding, named Bear. Whether galloping along the fieldstone walls of Graceland, checking on cattle at the Circle G, or quietly waiting as his famous rider signed autographs for fans, Bear earned a special place as a partner and friend among all the King's horses. The Breyer model of this gorgeous black horse includes Elvis' signature and Bear's name printed on the model's belly.

Box Size: 13.5"L x 3.875"W x 9.375"H

Neither fame nor fortune matched the joy that Rising Sun, a golden palomino American Quarter Horse, brought his world-famous rider. When Rising Sun passed away in 1986, he was buried at Graceland, facing east, forever towards the rising sun. Includes Elvis' signature and Rising Sun's name printed in elegant gold ink on the model's belly.

Teddy Roosevelt's Horse, ridden in the Battle of San Juan Hill

Great war horses are measured not in hands but in heroism. Described as a "pony" by historians, the chestnut gelding named Little Texas by his rider, future U.S. President Theodore Roosevelt, will always stand tall in national memory as the horse who bravely led the charge of the First U.S. Volunteer Cavalry in one of the fiercest battles of the 1898 Spanish American War: the Battle of San Juan Hill. 1471 Prince Jester

Missouri Fox Trotter World Champion

The role of the jester has always been to entertain, and in show rings one Missouri Fox Trotter stallion has continued that legacy: three-time World Grand Champion, Prince Jester. His stunning representation of the unique fox trot gait impressed the judges.

Also since 2000, he has sired 15 World Grand Champions, six Reserve World Champions, and six Futurity/World Champions. His sweet disposition, willing heart, and smooth style earned his place as an outstanding ambassador of the Missouri Fox Trotter breed.

Breed a National Reining Horse Association World Champion to one of the sport's all-time leading producers, and what have you got? A palomino overo stallion named Big Chex to Cash, which has earned more than $220,000 and multiple national reining championships. Big Chex, sired by the legendary Nu Chex to Cash, is owned by the 23 Partnership of California and stands at stud through Fappani Performance Horses.

1477 Priefert Hitch's Kong

You can feel the ground shake even before you see them. It's called Texas Thunder and when you hear it, it can only mean that the Priefert Ranch Equipment Percherons are on the grounds.

The star of the hitch is the mighty Kong, the "wheel" horse. "Wheelers" are always the largest horses in the hitch, are positioned closest to the wagon, and are the only horses in the hitch that have the ability to stop and/or back-up the wagon. Standing 19 hands tall, Kong is one of the most popular horses on the hitch.

Priefert Ranch Equipment is based in Mt. Pleasant, TX and offers a full line of farm, ranch and rodeo equipment.

©BILL ALPHIN 1433 Padré

Born wild in Nevada, the beautiful dun Mustang stallion named Padré was gathered and adopted through the Bureau of Land Management (BLM). He bears a unique BLM freeze brand on his neck, which is used to identify the wild horses that have been gathered from public rangelands.

When his owner Patti Gruber took him to his first show in-hand, Padré qualified for Dressage at Devon, which is one of the highest-rated international dressage competitions. Padré was the first mustang to ever compete at Devon, and he took home first place in the Four Year Old and Older Stallions (in hand) class, as well as winning Reserve Grand Champion Stallion Overall. To top off the year, Padré was also ranked #14 USDF Dressage Sport Horse Breeding Horse of the Year for 4 Year Old and Older Stallions. Breyer Fun Days provide a lasting impression on your youngest customers by letting them paint their very own Breyer Stablemates model! Fun Days are designed to give retailers a way to reach out to new business or to thank loyal customers by offering a unique, family-friendly activity.

Your little Breyer fans will not only leave with their very own hand painted Stablemates model, but also with a glimpse into all that Breyer has to offer! Use your next Fun Day as an introduction to Breyer Activity Sets and Customizing Kits to bring kids to the next level of the model horse hobby. And as an added bonus – Pal O' Mine could make a visit to your store! The Pal O' Mine mascot costume is available to travel on a first-come first-serve basis, free of charge to retailers hosting Fun Days. He is quite popular, however, so please call for availability.

BREYERFEST British Invasion

The British are coming! The British are coming! BreyerFest® is bringing London to Lexington, July 20-22, 2012! Three full days of equine entertainment and special guests await Breyer fans and collectors. Mark your calendars early for the celebration of the year! Representing the pomp and pageantry of the Queen's Household Cavalry procession and the dignified qualities of the breed trusted to be a member of the Queen's Band of Guards is Moonlit Acres' Drum Horse stallion, Mariah's Boon.

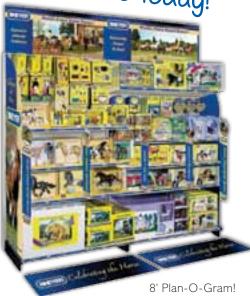

Guests can search for their long lost models in the famed Vendor Fair and Swap Meet and feast their eyes on masterpieces worthy of the National Gallery in the Artisans' Gallery! The Breyer University Workshops offer children and adults the opportunity to explore different areas of the hobby or brush up on techniques! The Craft & Activity area is a bustling mecca of free Stablemates painting and plenty of crafts! BreyerFest British Invasion will be a fun frolic for all!
